

How to Support Chicago (for Non-Chicago People)

Not in Chicago but want to take action to support Chicagoans resisting the Trump military/ICE occupation? Here are some quick actions you can take right now:

Follow these accounts and uplift their content:

- Asian Americans Advancing Justice | Chicago
- Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights
- Indivisible Chicago Alliance
- Organized Communities Against Deportations
- Hands Off Chicago

Donate* to support the immigrant justice movement:

- GoFundMe for the family taken at Millennium Park
- Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights
- National Immigrant Justice Center
- Organized Communities Against Deportations
- Southwest Side Rapid Response Team
- Street Vendors Association of Chicago
- The Resurrection Project

Some have asked how best to support the Broadview protests. Broadview organizers do not have a specific fund set up at this time, and encourage people to prioritize giving to the immigration organizations supporting directly impacted people! If a fund is created, we will share.*

Follow and donate to support independent press coverage

- Block Club Chicago
- Borderless Magazine
- The Triibe
- Unraveled Press

This list will be updated, and was produced by Hands Off Chicago. Please feel free to share broadly with anyone who might need them. Feedback? Questions? Email joanna@joannaklonsky.com and/or jake@sjlcommunications.com.
